DAC Goal for Year (2026)	$179,833
DAC Received to Date	$110,079
DAC Difference to Date	($69,754)

Monthly Expense Example

Each month, we report to you on our offertory (weekly collection) from the month prior. For the past several months, we've highlighted one of our regular expenses at the request of our parish finance council, to demonstrate that we are seeking to be good stewards of the generous contributions you offer.

Our parish's grass cutting bill averages $5,980/month in a six-month time period. It's a significant expense due to the extensive property that needs lawn care.

Matthew 25 Collection November 21-22

There will be a second collection next weekend (November 21-22) for the Matthew 25 collection. This annual Diocesan-wide collection supports food, clothing, and shelter needs of those in need in our Diocese. 25% of what you give stays here in our parish so we also can help those in need. Donations can be made during the second collection next week, online, or by returning the envelope you receive in the mail. Please be as generous as possible.

Many thanks to Mooney Law,
our bulletin sponsor of the week.

In Preparation for Next Sunday

First Reading: Ezekiel 34:11-12, 15-17
Psalm: Psalm 23:1-2, 2-3, 5-6
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:20-26, 28
Gospel Reading: Matthew 25:31-46

For just as in Adam all die, so too in Christ shall all be brought to life. ~~1 Corinthians 15:22

Porque, así como en Adán todos mueren, también en Cristo todos serán vivificados. ~~1 Corintios 15:22

Pastor's Notes | Notas del Pastor

by Father/Padre Marcoe

Dear Parish Family and Friends,

One of the most important questions we can ask is: "Lord, what are You calling me to do with my life?"

God has a plan for everyone. Some are called to marriage and family life, others to the priesthood or consecrated religious life. Every vocation is a gift, and God often uses ordinary people to help others recognize His call. Samuel needed Eli, St. Paul needed Ananias, and Andrew invited his brother Peter to meet Jesus. The same is true today.

Our parish will again participate in Called By Name, an initiative inviting us to prayerfully identify young men who might have a vocation to the priesthood.

On the weekend of November 21–22, you will have an opportunity to submit names of people who might benefit from encouragement to explore God's call. This is not a commitment to become a priest or religious sister or brother. It is simply an invitation to discern God's plan more deeply.

Many priests remember someone—a grandparent, teacher, friend, or parishioner—who first planted the seed of a vocation by asking, "Have you ever thought about becoming a priest?"

Over the next two weekends, please pray for vocations and consider those who demonstrate a living faith, love for Jesus, generosity, compassion, integrity, leadership, and a desire to serve others. They might be high school or college students, young adults, or even people already established in their careers. God's call can come at unexpected times.

Our January 2025 initiative throughout the Diocese produced encouraging results: 400 names were submitted, 45 young men attended follow-up dinners, and 37 were new contacts for the Vocations Office. Remarkably, three of our diocese's five newest seminarians said Called By Name played a role in their discernment!

I thank our Parish Vocation Ministry Team for fostering a culture of vocations in our parish and families, especially through prayer and encouragement. If you would like to join this important ministry, I encourage you to please contact April and Eric Land (or the parish office).

May we help one another hear the voice of the Good Shepherd and respond generously wherever He leads.

God bless your week!

Fr. Marcoe

Estimada familia parroquial y amigos:

Una de las preguntas más importantes que podemos plantearnos es: "Señor, ¿qué quieres que haga con mi vida?"

Dios tiene un plan para cada persona. Algunos son llamados al matrimonio y a la vida familiar; otros, al sacerdocio o a la vida religiosa consagrada. Toda vocación es un don, y a menudo Dios se vale de personas comunes para ayudar a otros a reconocer Su llamado. Samuel necesitó a Elí; san Pablo, a Ananías; y Andrés invitó a su hermano Pedro a conocer a Jesús. Lo mismo ocurre hoy en día.

Nuestra parroquia participará nuevamente en la iniciativa "Llamados por su nombre" (Called By Name), que nos invita a identificar, mediante la oración, a jóvenes que podrían tener vocación al sacerdocio.

Durante el fin de semana del 21 al 22 de noviembre, tendrán la oportunidad de proponer nombres de personas a quienes podría beneficiar un poco de ánimo para explorar el llamado de Dios. Esto no implica un compromiso de convertirse en sacerdote, religioso o religiosa; es, sencillamente, una invitación a profundizar en el discernimiento del plan de Dios.

Muchos sacerdotes recuerdan a alguien —un abuelo, un maestro, un amigo o un miembro de la parroquia— que sembró la semilla de su vocación al preguntarles: "¿Alguna vez has pensado en ser sacerdote?"

Durante los próximos dos fines de semana, les pido que oren por las vocaciones y piensen en aquellas personas que demuestran una fe viva, amor por Jesús, generosidad, compasión, integridad, capacidad de liderazgo y deseo de servir a los demás. Puede tratarse de estudiantes de secundaria o universitarios, adultos jóvenes o incluso personas que ya están establecidas en sus carreras profesionales. El llamado de Dios puede llegar en momentos inesperados.

La iniciativa que llevamos a cabo en enero de 2025 en toda la diócesis dio resultados alentadores: se recibieron 400 nombres, 45 jóvenes asistieron a cenas de seguimiento y 37 pasaron a formar parte de los nuevos contactos de la Oficina de Vocaciones. ¡Es notable destacar que tres de los cinco seminaristas más recientes de nuestra diócesis señalaron que la iniciativa "Llamados por su nombre" influyó en su proceso de discernimiento!

Agradezco al equipo parroquial de pastoral vocacional por fomentar una cultura de vocaciones en nuestra parroquia y en nuestras familias, especialmente a través de la oración y el aliento. Si desean unirse a este importante ministerio, les animo a ponerse en contacto con April y Eric Land (o con la oficina parroquial).

Ayudémonos unos a otros a escuchar la voz del Buen Pastor y a responder con generosidad a dondequiera que Él nos guíe.

¡Que Dios bendiga su semana!

P. Marcoe

Please Return Welcome Signs | Por favor, devuelvan los carteles de bienvenida

Thank you everyone who adopted an "All Are Welcome" yard sign. They have had a positive effect on attracting souls to seek the Lord. Please return the signs to the Historic Church or Xavier Center before winter weather sets in so we can repair, clean, and store the signs until Spring. Questions? Call or text Walt Tuchalski, 717-309-2482.

Gracias a todos los que adoptaron un cartel viajero "Todos son Bienvenidos" esta última temporada. Han tenido un efecto positivo en atraer almas a buscar al Señor. Ahora es momento de devolver los carteles a la Iglesia Histórica o al Centro Xavier antes de que llegue el clima invernal, para que podamos repararlos, limpiarlos y uardarlos hasta la primavera, cuando volverán a viajar nuevamente. ¿Preguntas? Llama o envía un mensaje de texto a Walt Tuchalski, 717-309-2482.

2026 SFX Gift Fair & Holiday Bazaar Thank You and More

Thank you to all the parish organizations, volunteers, donors, vendors and shoppers who turned out to make the Parish Gift Fair & Holiday Bazaar such an overwhelming success this past weekend! From overflowing parking areas, lines at the doors, and every inch of the public areas of Xavier Center loaded with happy people enjoying a fine day out and about, every indication is that this year's event is shaping up to be a record-breaking year. Thank you for making it happen! Results are still being audited and will be reported to the Parish in the coming weeks.

CONGRATULATIONS to parishioner Megan Cellucci, winner of the $1,000.00 Cash Raffle, jointly sponsored by the KofC & PCCW; parishioner Walt Tuchalski, winner of the KofC 50/50 $265.00 cash take home prize, and Gettysburg resident Craig D'Ambrogi, who has been an annual shopper of this event since Xavier Center opened in 2011, winner of the Christmas Candy Lane Game Grand Prize Basket valued at $800.00, courtesy of 14 generous local businesses. Once again, thank you to everyone who helped make this event happen.

Parents and Children Talk About Theology of the Body | Padres e hijos hablan sobre la Teología del Cuerpo

The Parent/Child Theology of the Body Session for 8th graders (and older) and parents is Sun., Nov. 22, 2:00–4:00 PM, in the Multipurpose Room at Xavier Center. The presentation will discuss chastity and practical ways to live it. Attendance at this presentation is expected as part of the St. Francis Xavier Catholic School and Religious Education programs. The session is primarily in English, with Spanish materials available. Babysitting for siblings will be offered.

The Parent/Child Theology of the Body Session for kindergarteners and parents is Tuesday, November 24th, 9:00–10:30 AM, in the kindergarten classroom at Xavier Center. The English session focuses on the beauty and wonder of life. No babysitting will be offered.

La sesión de Teología del Cuerpo para alumnos de 8.º grado en adelante y sus padres será el domingo 22 de noviembre, de 2:00 a 4:00 p. m., en el Salón de Usos Múltiples del Centro Xavier. Se abordará el tema de la castidad y cómo vivirla en la práctica. La asistencia a esta presentación forma parte del programa de la Escuela Católica San Francisco Javier (SFXCS) y de Educación Religiosa (PREP). El evento se impartirá principalmente en inglés, con materiales en español y servicio de guardería disponible para los hermanos menores. Habrá servicio de cuidado de niños para los hermanos.

Parish, Community & Diocesan Notes/Notas Parroquiales, Comunitarias y Diocesanas

Parish Advocacy Program

Several years ago, the Diocesan Office of Ministry with People with Disabilities initiated a ministry called the Parish Advocacy Program. This ministry enables parishes to better respond to the gifts and needs of their parishioners with disabilities. In this regard, the Diocese encourages each parish to select a parishioner to serve in the capacity of parish advocate. At this time, Fr. Marcoe is inquiring if a parishioner (or parishioners) would like to serve in this volunteer role. The advocate helps our parishioners know about the opportunities that are happening on the diocesan level in this ministry. Also, the advocate is a contact person at the parish level to help the pastor be sensitive to the needs of people with disabilities. For example, a parishioner could approach the advocate with questions or concerns, and then the advocate and the parish manager would talk about how the parish could address those needs. If you are interested or would like further information, please contact Fr. Marcoe.

Music Ministry Update ~~by Betty Anne Abrahamsen, Music Ministry Coordinator

As the new liturgical year approaches, I'd like to share an update on music at St Francis. As the new coordinator, I'm encouraged by how many people sing at Mass. Our goal is beautiful congregational singing!

We are blessed with three wonderful organists and many voices to lead us, but we need more people to share their musical talents as cantors or choir members. If you or someone you know feels called to this ministry, we'd love to hear from you. We'll begin by sharing information about what's involved.

We also welcome skilled instrumentalists who would like to enrich the liturgy.

YOU ARE NEEDED: Singers, instrumentalists, and willing servants who cherish God's gift of music. Often people need that nudge from another.

Please contact Betty Anne at 717-825-1101 or steffabrah@gmail.com (apologies in advance for a delayed response until after Nov. 16 due to the Greece pilgrimage).
